Sir/Madam:

Greetings from the Agriculture Department!

We are elated to inform you that the Batanes State College, through the Agriculture Department, will be conducting a Feasibility study on Offering a Bachelor of Science in Fisheries program. This is in line with the vision of the college of promoting quality, accessible, and future-ready academic programs that reflect the Ivatan cultural heritage.

To ensure the program addressed the needs of the community and industry, we are seeking the valuable insights of stakeholders like you. We kindly request your support by participating in a survey aimed to gather perspectives on the proposed program. The survey can be accessed via the following link:

We also encourage you to share this survey with your staff and colleagues, as their input will contribute significantly to shaping the program's development.

Thank you very much for your time and invaluable feedback. Together, we can work towards advancing education opportunities that will serve and empower the Ivatan community.

Respectfully,

XINA V. VINALAY, MBA
Department Chairperson
